About Us

Pittsburgh Arts & Lectures provides educational experiences to thousands of students each year through our programs. We work with hundreds of schools and non-profit organizations to share the resource of celebrated authors visiting our community.

About Author to Schools

Pittsburgh Arts & Lectures sends visiting children’s authors to an area school for a one-hour question and answer session at 10:00 am the Monday following Sunday’s public Words & Pictures lecture.

The visit is hosted at one school while four additional schools actively participate through video conferencing technology.

An unlimited number of schools can log in to view the event in real time.

“ I cannot thank you enough for making Monday’s Author to Schools event amazing.”
