

2023/24 Ten Evenings at the Carnegie Library Lecture Hall

Arrival Instructions and Event Details

Thank you for supporting Pittsburgh Arts & Lectures. We look forward to seeing you for Ten Evenings in the Carnegie Library Lecture Hall. To ease our transition to a new venue this season, we've included arrival instructions and event details below.

When You Arrive

The address for the Carnegie Library Lecture Hall is 4400 Forbes Avenue, Pittsburgh, PA 15213. Please enter the building through the Portal Entrance, located in the library/museum parking lot opposite Craig Street. (See map on reverse side for Portal Entrance.)

Once you enter through the Portal Entrance, directional signs and event staff will guide you to Basecamp, located inside the Carnegie Museum of Natural History. At Basecamp, you will be able to visit our Box Office, purchase books from White Whale Bookstore, learn more about Pittsburgh Arts & Lectures at our Information Table, and enter the Lecture Hall.

Event Details

Each Ten Evenings lecture will begin promptly at 7:30 pm. Doors to the hall will open at 6:45 pm. Please plan to arrive early. All ticket holders must enter the Lecture Hall through Basecamp.

Please reference your ticket to find your seat information.

Section 1 (Orchestra) seats are directly in front of the stage and are accessible by aisles on both the left and right sides. These seats are on the first floor and require no steps to access.

Section 2 seats are in the tiered balcony, in Row A through Row D, in 4 separate sections in a half-circle around the stage. The seating is accessible by a staircase on both the left and right sides. Section 2 is general admission.

Section 3 seats are also in the tiered balcony, in Row E through Row L, in 4 separate sections in a half-circle around the stage. The seating is accessible by stairs on both the left and right sides, as well as two staircases in the corridor outside the hall. Section 3 is general admission.

Volunteers and event staff will be available to assist with seating.

Parking and Transportation

Parking is located at the Carnegie Museums of Pittsburgh. The museum operates a six-level parking facility for cars and small vans. The entrance is located at the intersection of S. Craig Street and Forbes Avenue.

Event parking costs $10 per vehicle. Street parking in Oakland is also available.

Bicycle parking is available on Level 5 of the garage.

The Carnegie Library Lecture Hall is connected to the following bus routes: 54, 61A, 61B, 61C, 67, 71A, 71B, 71C, 71D, 75, 93. All bus routes are subject to change. Please visit the Pittsburgh Regional Transit webpage (www.rideprt.org) for up-to-date schedules.

Accessibility

There is designated accessible parking both above ground and in the garage. Elevators are available to access Basecamp from the Portal Entrance. If you have any questions about the physical access provided, please call (412-622-8866) or email (info@pittsburghlectures.org) in advance of your visit.

We offer hearing assistive devices at every event. The devices are available to pick up by the Information Table. ASL interpreters and CART captioning may be scheduled upon request. Please call our Box Office if you have any accessibility requests. We will do our best to accommodate all requests, however, due to the layout of the venue, accessible seating is extremely limited and may not be available.

Tickets

Please bring your tickets with you on the night of the lecture. If you have misplaced your ticket, please call our Box Office (412-622-8866) by 2:00pm that day, or visit our Box Office in Basecamp between 6:30 pm and 7:30 pm on the night of the lecture.

Change of Plans?

Due to limited seating in the hall, we encourage you to let us know if you do not plan to join us in person. You will still have access to the livestream recording for one week after the lecture.

If you would like to transfer your in-person ticket to someone you know, please contact our Box Office, and staff will reserve your ticket for pickup at Will Call under the provided name. If you would like to turn back your in-person ticket for resale, please visit our website or call our Box Office. We kindly ask that you turn back your ticket at least two weeks prior to the scheduled event when possible.

Questions?

If you have any further questions, please call (412-622-8866) or email (info@pittsburghlectures.org).
